THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER CHRISTMAS

January 3, 2021

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This year, because of the way the days of the week fall immediately after Christmas Day, we are blessed by having not one but two Sundays after Christmas!

In the Old Testament Reading, Solomon, a young man, takes on an enormous task, continuing the business of his father, the powerful King David. Like the boy Jesus, he grew in wisdom for the task. The Epistle reminds us that “the God and Father of our Lord Jesus” makes known to us His loving will “in all wisdom and insight” (Eph 1:3, 8–9). In the Gospel, it is the twelve- year-old Jesus who is truly “about My Father’s business,” as He continues to grow in wisdom and stature.

Jesus was glad to be in God’s house when He was in Jerusalem. Our gladness in these special days is heightened by our being here for worship as we grow in wisdom and in stature by God’s boundless grace!

Yours in Christ Jesus,

OLD TESTAMENT READING

1 Kings 3:4–15

P The Old Testament Reading is from First Kings, chapter three.

<sup>4</sup>The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place. Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. <sup>5</sup>At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night, and God said, “Ask what I shall give you.” <sup>6</sup>And Solomon said, “You have shown great and steadfast love to Your servant David my father, because he walked before You in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward You. And You have kept for him this great and steadfast love and have given him a son to sit on his throne this day. <sup>7</sup>And now, O LORD my God, You have made Your servant king in place of David my father, although I am but a little child. I do not know how to go out or come in. <sup>8</sup>And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a great people, too many to be numbered or counted for multitude. <sup>9</sup>Give Your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern Your people, that I may discern between good and evil, for who is able to govern this Your great people?”

<sup>10</sup>It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. <sup>11</sup>And God said to him, “Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, <sup>12</sup>behold, I now do according to your word. Behold, I give you a wise and discerning mind, so that none like you has been before you and none like you shall arise after you. <sup>13</sup>I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that no other king shall compare with you, all your days. <sup>14</sup>And if you will walk in My ways, keeping My statutes and My commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days.”

<sup>15</sup>And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream. Then he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL

Isaiah 9:6 (NKJV); Psalm 98:1a (NKJV)

The pastor and congregation chant responsively by half-verse.

For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is | given;*

and the government will be upon His | shoulder.

And His name will be called Wonderful, | Counselor;*

Mighty God, Everlasting Father, | Prince of Peace.

Oh, sing to the LORD a | new song!*

For He has done | marvelous things!

EPISTLE READING

Ephesians 1:3–14

P The Epistle is from Ephesians, chapter one.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, <sup>4</sup>even as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before Him. In love <sup>5</sup>He predestined us for adoption as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of His will, <sup>6</sup>to the praise of His glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved. <sup>7</sup>In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace, <sup>8</sup>which He lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight <sup>9</sup>making known to us the mystery of His will, according to His purpose, which He set forth in Christ <sup>10</sup>as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in Him, things in heaven and things on earth.

<sup>11</sup>In Him we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His will, <sup>12</sup>so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of His glory. <sup>13</sup>In Him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in Him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, <sup>14</sup>who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of His glory.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 2:40–52

P The Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke, chapter two.

Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

<sup>40</sup>The Child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom. And the favor of God was upon Him.

<sup>41</sup>Now His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover. <sup>42</sup>And when He was twelve years old, they went up according to custom. <sup>43</sup>And when the feast was ended, as they were returning, the Boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents did not know it, <sup>44</sup>but supposing Him to be in the group they went a day's journey, but then they began to search for Him among their relatives and acquaintances, <sup>45</sup>and when they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem, searching for Him. <sup>46</sup>After three days they found Him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup>And all who heard Him were amazed at His understanding and His answers. <sup>48</sup>And when His parents saw Him, they were astonished. And His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You treated us so? Behold, Your father and I have been searching for You in great distress." <sup>49</sup>And He said to them, "Why were you looking for Me? Did you not know that I must be in My Father's house?" <sup>50</sup>And they did not understand the saying that He spoke to them. <sup>51</sup>And He went down with them and came to Nazareth and was submissive to them. And His mother treasured up all these things in her heart.

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and man.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

NICENE CREED

C I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of His Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary
and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried.

And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures
 and ascended into heaven
 and sits at the right hand of the Father.
 And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead,
 whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Lord and giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified,
 who spoke by the prophets.
 And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,
 I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,
 and I look for the resurrection of the dead
 and the life ✠ of the world to come. Amen.

- P In peace, let us pray to the Lord:

- P For the Church, blessed in Christ, the Beloved, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins; for the preaching of the Gospel of salvation and the seal of the promised Holy Spirit in Baptism; and to raise up faithful preachers among us to the praise of Christ's glory until we acquire the inheritance promised us in Him, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.

Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven;
give us this day our daily bread;

but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

CONCLUDING COLLECT

P Let us pray.

Blessèd Lord, You have caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning. ✠ SOLI DEO GLORIA ✠
(TO GOD ALONE BE THE GLORY)

SOME FINAL THOUGHTS FROM YOUR PASTOR

Brothers and Sisters,

Happy New Year! So also begins the arduous task of remembering to write 2021 instead of 2020 (I have already failed to do this EACH AND EVERY TIME).

I had an epiphany last week (by the way, The Feast of the Epiphany is this Wednesday). I was driving in my car and tuned my radio to what was the “Holly” channel (which, for obvious reasons, I prefer <LOL!> and which played Christmas music ever since late November). I was in the mood for a little more Christmas music. To my great disappointment, the Christmas music was GONE—replaced by what passes for “New Year’s Eve” party music!

You’re probably thinking, “Of course it changed; the holiday channels change with the holidays!” But let me tell you: IT IS STILL CHRISTMAS! There are twelve days of it!

Our poor modern world is always “on to the next” with reckless abandon! No savoring of the moment.

Advent is the time appointed to get ready and build anticipation for that most wonderful Christian celebration we call Christmas: when we welcome God-in-the-flesh; when we brighten the winter nights with twinkling lights as a reminder that the Light of the world now shines amidst the darkness of sin; and when we exchange gifts—tokens of our love—as our joyful response to God’s greatest gift to us—Christ Jesus, the Father’s only-begotten Son, and the fulfillment of His promise to save us from sin.

The world begins celebrating “Christmas” in mid-November (or earlier). It’s totally backwards—like sneaking out of bed to unwrap the gifts beneath the tree, ruining the surprise of Christmas morning. By the time that Christmas Day rolls around, the world has had its fill and twelve days is just too much to stomach anymore (not unlike the twelfth day of eating turkey after Thanksgiving).

It wasn’t always this way in America. The Twelve Days of Christmas used to be a big deal! George and Martha Washington would host their friends at Mount Vernon for all twelve days! And then, on The Feast of the Epiphany (the twelfth day), they would celebrate their wedding anniversary with all their friends. It was considered luck (perhaps better said “a blessed thing”) to be married on Epiphany!

So I hope that you’ll follow George and Martha’s example and make the Twelve Days of Christmas and Epiphany a BIG DEAL! Keep those Christmas decorations up! Keep the carols playing! And keep the “magic” of Christmas going—keep your eyes on Jesus and let not your tongue be silent to proclaim the miracles that He has wrought for you: forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation!

And since Epiphany IS a big deal, we’ll be studying Matthew 2:1-12 during our “Zoom” Bible Study at Noon on Tuesday and having a special Epiphany Service at 7:00pm on Wednesday (Facebook Live).

- To join the study on your computer, go to <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/7603525715>
- To join by phone, call either “669-900-9128” or “346-248-7799” and enter 7603525715#

Lastly, please continue to mail your tithes and offerings to the church's post office box: Grace Evangelical-Lutheran Church, PO Box 1530, El Centro, CA 92244-1530.

Yours in Christ Jesus, +Pastor Griebenaw
